to one of these little ones to drink...
will surely not lose his reward."

MATTHEW 10:42

The Statue of Hospitality

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Twelve score and seven years ago "our fathers brought forth, upon this continent, a new nation, conceived in liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal," as Abraham Lincoln once reminded us. This week we as a nation once again mark that new beginning, we who have inherited its blessings as a gift generously bestowed upon us by those who have gone before us, a gift not deserved but nevertheless ours, a gift we do not own, yet pass on to generations to come, a gift we eagerly share.

Hospitality is something to extend to those who come to our doors; it is also something we can extend to those who come to our shores. It seems worthwhile then, especially this week and amid so many disagreements over immigration, to revisit the words inscribed at the base of the Statue of Liberty written by the poet Emma Lazarus and inscribed in our psyche as a nation. It serves as a vision of who we are, perhaps as much as does our Constitution.

Give me your tired, your poor,
Your huddled masses yearning to breathe free,
The wretched refuse of your teeming shore.
Send these, the homeless, tempest-tost to me;
I lift my lamp beside the golden door!

The woman at Shunem offered Elisha the prophet hospitality, and she was blessed. Jesus promised that those who offer the hospitality of a cup of cold water will be blessed. Surely then, any nation that welcomes others in hospitality will be blessed as well. ●

Church Cleaning Teams

Let us be aware that it is a privilege to be able to continue cleaning our Parish church building at this time- especially after the recent decision to have St Ignatius remain an active Parish. We have been blessed in many ways! With that said, unfortunately many times only 2 or 3 people on each church team show up on a regular basis. Several team captains have experienced doing the cleaning with one person plus themselves. It is common courtesy to respond back with a yes or no to your team captain when you get a reminder call that it is your team's turn to clean church. Each team cleans one time every 5 months—not too much to ask. The bi-weekly cleaning list can be done in two hours if 5 or 6 people show up. So, the next time you get that reminder call to clean church with your team, please do the Time and Talent part of the Time, Talent & Treasure thing! Fr. Steve Robeson

Pastor's Letter to the People of St. Ignatius

When a time in our lives is coming to an end, it becomes punctuated and important for us. This is a time I find myself wanting to tell you the most important truth I could tell you before leaving, especially at a time like this, when many of you may be worried if Saint Ignatius is going to be okay. The message is:

you are worthy and infinitely loved by God. The evangelizing ministries that we have started together in my five years, whether we were increasing what you already did or starting some anew, were to help more of you believe that great truth.

Aug. 2018- We significantly increased the number of participants in Eucharistic Adoration.

Aug. 2018- I renewed the practice of a priest attending sports or other performances of our young people, so they know the Church is supporting important parts of their lives.

Aug. 2019- We started the Parents Faith Support Ministry.

Sep. 2019- Our first Stewardship drive ever, allowed everyone to renew their ministry commitments and start new ones. We restarted a Respect Life Committee and started a Catholic Social Justice Ministry. The Church requires both to exist in all parishes.

March 2020- The pandemic suspended our ability to continue affirming people with God's love by gathering in groups, but I tried to keep at least one of our street corners warm with God's love sitting outside and greeting passersby on behalf of our loving Parish. After I leave, all of you will have to find out how many people got that message!

Oct. 2021- Parent to Parent Faith discussions in small groups, supported by caring members of the parish, to help Catholic parents prepare for their children's Sacraments.

Nov. 2022- Vocations Support Ministry.

March 2023- Healing Prayer Services in Church.

Starting all those Ministries was both an affirmation and a challenge to you. It was the prophetic side of my priesthood. God would not have allowed a priest like me to come to this Parish if you were not worthy of receiving those challenges. Remember Jesus' words in the Gospel this weekend: "whoever receives a prophet.... will receive a prophet's reward." The way to 'receive the prophet' in my priesthood while I was here, is to sustain what we started after I go. Do that and watch the "prophet's reward" from the Lord coming your way!

Much love,
Father Steve

Dear Padre,

How do we serve everyone in a culturally diverse parish?

In the past it was common to have parishes dedicated to different ethnic groups where such populations were concentrated. In 2010, the US bishops found that 33 percent of all US parishes were culturally diverse, and that's perhaps using a narrow understanding of diversity. Then in 2014, they published Best Practices for Shared Parishes: So That They May All Be One, in which they outline a nine-movement process for creating an inclusive parish. The term "shared parishes" describes parish communities in which two or more languages or cultural contexts are present in the ministerial life of a parish. The fact that there are nine movements is notable. It means that we slowly move toward inclusiveness; we don't simply present a Mass in Spanish and think the job is done.

This brings to mind a parishioner in a parish I served in the Mississippi Delta. This was indeed a "shared parish," with a large African-American population, a significant Spanish-speaking population, and an elderly population of white Americans who expected a more "traditional" Mass with familiar hymns. Rosemary was an Italian-American whose family had lived in the area since the beginning of the nineteenth century. She served as the parish's director of education. Rosemary made it her practice to attend every Mass to welcome people and make them feel at home. She was the perfect example of the first movement toward serving everyone in a shared parish: hospitality. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

Millions of people came to this land to pursue their dream of building a future in freedom. We, the people of this continent, are not fearful of foreigners, because most of us were once foreigners. I say this to you as the son of immigrants, knowing that so many of you are also descended from immigrants.
